About the College

Established in 2011, K J Somaiya College of Nursing is recognised for its commitment to academic excellence and quality education in the field of healthcare. The college aims to impart nursing education to prepare professionals who are knowledgeable, skilful, and equipped with the right professional attitudes to deliver nursing services at par with global standards.

Aligned with Indian Nursing Council (INC) and Maharashtra University of Health Sciences (MUHS) standards, the college focuses on producing professionals who can not only deliver care, but also lead teams, contribute to research, and shape healthcare outcomes.

K J Somaiya College of Nursing is part of the expansive Somaiya Ayurvihar campus in Mumbai, a well-developed healthcare and education hub that offers students access to a wide range of academic, clinical, and support facilities. The campus brings together K J Somaiya Medical College, K J Somaiya Hospital & Research Centre, and K J Somaiya College of Physiotherapy, creating an integrated environment for collaborative learning, interdisciplinary exposure, and comprehensive patient care.
