About the School

Established in 1994, KJ Somaiya School of Nursing is recognized for its commitment to academic excellence and quality education in the field of healthcare. The school aims to impart nursing education to prepare professionals who are knowledgeable, skillful, and equipped with the right professional attitudes to deliver nursing services at par with global standards.

Aligned with Indian Nursing Council (INC) and Maharashtra State Board of Nursing and Paramedical Education (MSBNPE) standards, the School focuses on producing professionals who can not only deliver care, but also lead teams, contribute to research, and shape healthcare outcomes.

K J Somaiya School of Nursing is part of the expansive Somaiya Ayurvihar campus in Mumbai, a well-developed healthcare and education hub that offers students access to a wide range of academic, clinical, and support facilities. The campus brings together K J Somaiya Medical College, K J Somaiya Hospital & Research Centre, and K J Somaiya College of Physiotherapy, creating an integrated environment for collaborative learning, interdisciplinary exposure, and comprehensive patient care.
